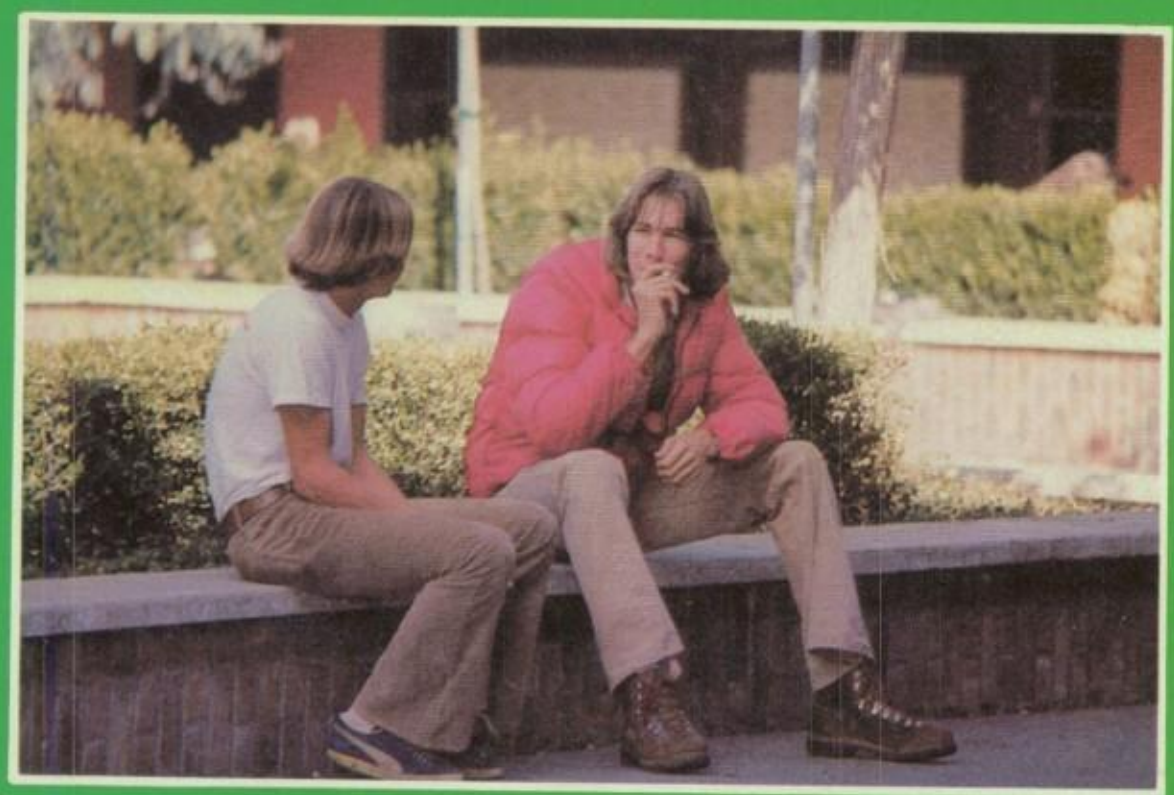
I Am A Student



Stacy- It's too bad things didn't work out between us as well as they could have but the times we had and will have I think were and will be enjoyed. Maybe your parents will change their opinion of teenagers or me. But one thing I know, we will always be friends and we can keep in touch this summer. Do you remember how and when we met? It was the time Aimless and peter were telling each other on the steps. I came flirting along and said to myself, Hey I think I want to get to know these two chicks sitting there with Peter. So I went up and asked aimless if she would do that to me. I can't get any of those pens to work so I shall say good-by. Have a nice summer. And hope to see you during that time.

I Am Distressed

Dedication

We admit J. R., we (your beloved yearbook staff) are 100% responsible for keeping this a secret from you (or at least trying to). It was quite difficult you know, especially for Maura. The only way it came about was because the stay-at-home monster caught you several times during the year. We apologize to the rest of the student body because this entire passage contains inside jokes that none of you will understand. We knew from the beginning that this year would be Mr. Rosenberg's last year of teaching (sniff, sniff). You've changed (Frank Sinatra to Neil Diamond), and you've changed us. We went to Pajaro Dunes (good ol' Uncle Bill) as fourteen strangers, and came out a family. Anybody for a game of Hug Tag? WDWD. (Sorry, it just couldn't be left out.) A lot of our feelings have been left out, but we couldn't find ten extra pages in which to express them. We'll close with the thing you always said to us, and now we're saying it to you — "You don't know how great you are!" P.S. We love you honey!

Fall ASB

Five leaders, and lots of followers. Our ASB leaders spend many hours trying to improve the school. Extra dances, lunch time concerts, and other activities enjoyed by the student body. Along with the selected leaders, there were also many commissioners who help with the activities. Each Commissioner knows his/her field well, and works hard to organize activities.

President: Lane Michel
Vice President: Brian Phelps
Secretary: Debbie Eagan
Sgt.-at-Arms: Daryl Rheuark
Treasurer: Marianne Rogers

Speech and Debate

What makes a Lynbrook "Speechie?" The list includes wearing nylons, three-piece suits, and being awake at six a.m. Working for hours on end with little note cards, and wondering why one always does better in practice than in the actual debate are a few parts of it. But hope reigns eternal! What are the chances of qualifying for nationals? What is inherency, Mrs. Keller? Anyway, on to the next tournament . . .

Quill and Scroll

A very clever name to mask their true identity, which is our beloved Epic staff. They raise money to help support the Epic, the newspaper which captivates the interest of many garbage cans, some bushes, and a few students.

French Club

The French club's big event is the Mardi Gras. They also have plenty of parties during the year. The club carols at Christmas time as a service project.

Spanish Club

Unlike past years, this year's club involves actual Spanish culture (a big shock to most). The club meets off campus to organize activities such as the Eastside Christmas Trip, selling of May flowers, and deciding what to do at the next meeting.

Axel Gorgler

Mari Matsui

Foreign Exchange Students

This year we had five foreign exchange students who came through the YFU (Youth For Understanding) program. Nanette Hvistendahl, from Norway, is staying with Dee and Russ Lacy. She plays the trombone in the Lynbrook marching band. From Sweden, our representative is Rolf Berglund. Rolf, who is staying with Jim and Jane Corridan, loves milk shakes. He also swims. The third of our European representatives is Axel Gorgler of Germany. Axel is staying with Theresa Fuqua, and plays the tuba in the marching band and the jazz band. We also have a representative from the Phillipines who is staying with Julie and Katie Schaeffer. Her name is Guia Villarante. Guia loves America, especially its chocolate. The fifth and final exchange student is Mari Matsui from Japan. Mari is staying with Jody Hoffman. Mari loves to play volleyball, and enjoys watching American football.

Rolf Berglund

Guia Villarante

Nanette Hvistendahl

In last year's book, SWAGON was said to mean, "students who are gone on nature." Incorrect! It actually means, "students who are great outdoor nuts." Three out of six isn't too bad. This club's big projects for the year are a ski trip and a canoe trip. The Oceanography Club goes to the shore, exploring the earth's last frontier. They search endlessly for new creatures from the deep. (Why is there a bird in the picture?) Always talking about "the big one that got away," the Fishing Club has been seen flycasting in the pool. Sorry boys, but the living things in the pool only go for worms.

Key Club

The Key Club is this year's service club (which, due to the non-existence of the Interact Club, is no longer opposed). This nationally organized club does such things as cleaning up the school, organizing carnivals and setting up publicity projects, but they also have fun.

KLVK

They are members of the student body who enjoy fooling around with electronic equipment or maybe just like hearing their names broadcasted.

Animal Protection Club

The students at Lynbrook who are truly concerned with the diminishing amount of wildlife. They raise money for Green Peace, Save the Whales, and other Animal Protection Agencies.

Historical Simulations

A dedicated lot who spend their waking hours reconstructing past battles, creating fake ones, and determining the outcome of possible future ones. Do they do such things in the Pentagon also?

Y.A.P.: Who really knows what it stands for? (Aside from club members, of course.) For the few of you who read this, and for the few of you who care, Y.A.P. means Youth Alive in Politics. Unlike most of us apathetic Lynbrookites, they care about what's going on behind those infamous closed doors in Washington.

The Bowling Club retains a high level of insanity, mainly due to a strange advisor disguised as a Chemistry teacher. They bowl every Saturday and give trophies for distinguished awards, such as "most gutterballs."

The Pep Club is the largest club at Lynbrook. Donna Hunter is the President, and Lorri Lampell is the Vice President. They are also the two loudest screamers. The Pep Club supports the athletic program by attending the games; and they are the ones who get up at six o'clock in the morning to put up the locker stickers.

Rallies

Most people enjoy rallies (even those who don't go — the joys of an extended brunch), because it is the best place at school to make a fool of yourself. Rallies often include surprises, such as an appearance of the UCLA Band (Go Stanford!). But the highlight always seems to be the class against class yelling contest. Why do the Seniors always win? Very strange, but what better way to relieve the frustrations of a school day? Toot, toot, toot, win!

Did you ever walk through the rally court and see a group of girls marching back and forth to music? That's our beloved drill team. They practice during and after school, and perform at football games and tournaments.

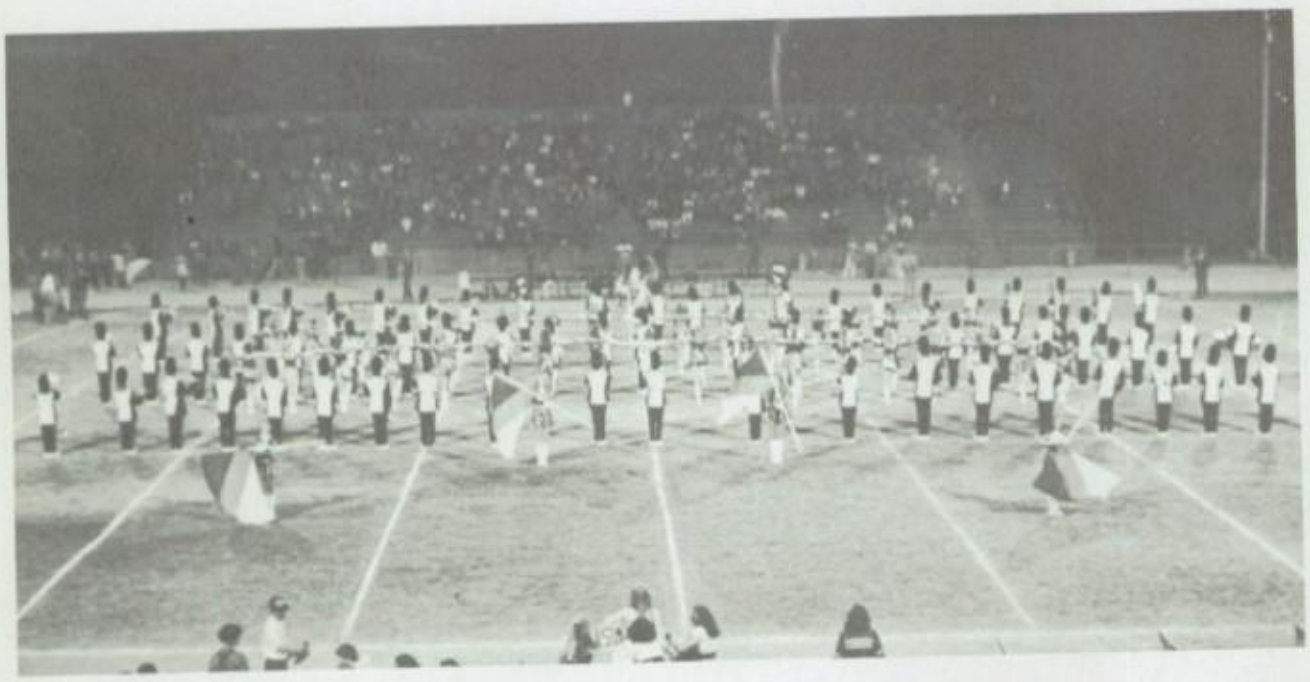
Captains: Karen Higgins, Keri Bestul.

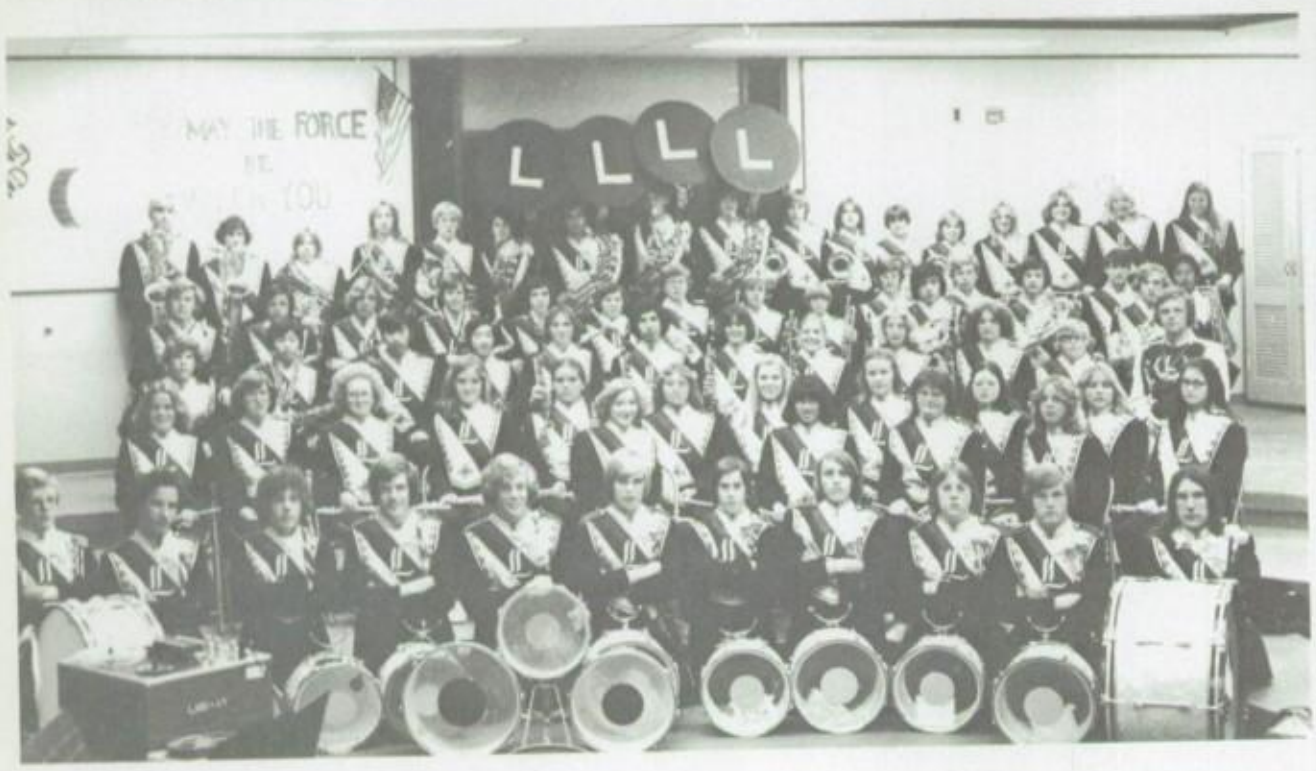
Jazz Team

Remember Girls, Knees to the chin! This is a six beat not a four beat! Step-skip not skip-step! (What??) Timing is the key!

Marching Band

Under the new leadership of Mr. (Professor?) Steve Stroud the marching band has increased considerably in size. Since they can actually be heard at football games now, it's very important that they get it right — and they do.





Jamboree

The Jamboree is the annual competition of the schools in our district to open the football season. Each school participates not only in football, but also in spirit. All the spirited people in the school go to the game early, leave late, and go out afterwards. (McDonalds is a favorite.) After yelling at the football games, people come to school without a voice. We even won a trophy this year for being on the winning, South side.

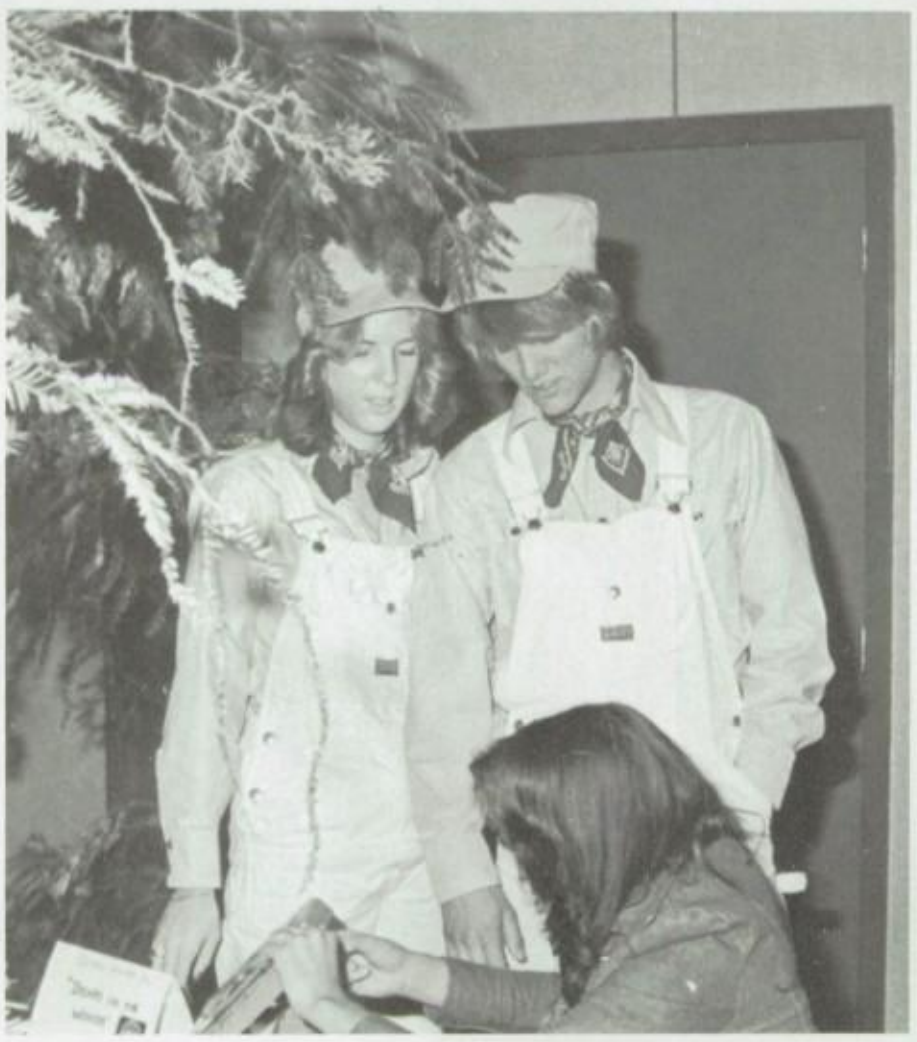
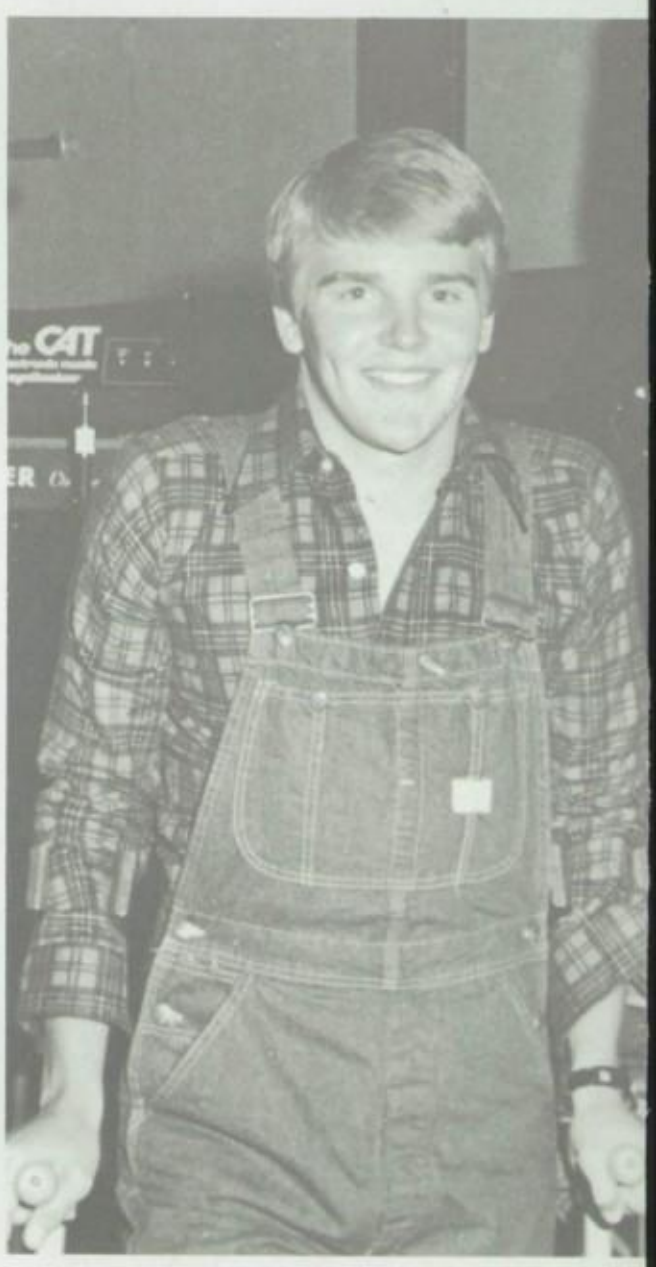
Jody Mumma

It was raining, and it was cold. Even so, it turned out to be the most crowded game of the year. That night Jody Mumma was crowned Homecoming Queen. Between the drops of rain and the loss of the game, our spirits were not dampened (no pun intended), because we all got to see our beloved seniors once again.

Sadie Hawkins

"Find 'Em In The Woods" was the theme of this year's Sadie Hawkins Dance. This year's costumes were good as always, ranging from dwarfs (Freshmen?) to skunks. Portraying "Marryin' Sam and Sal" were Mr. Frisch and Miss Lallemand. A big tradition of the Sadie is the selection of "Mr. Irresistible" from each class, and one King. The Irresistibles were as follows: Frosh: Dave Mellon. Soph: Ken Cooke. Junior: Matt Frank. Senior: Greg Miller. This year's King was Rolf Berglund.





Craig Ryder

Brigadoon

Brigadoon was probably one of the most widely publicized plays at Lynbrook, but this wasn't the only reason for the large turnouts. Back stage heroes such as Karen Euler sewing up Jeff's shirt between scenes helped the production considerably; and onstage heroes like Cheryl Wilson, who had to chatter for five full minutes about nothing. (What did she talk about?) Daria Smith helped too, by conquering her acrophobia by singing on the stairs.

It should be noted that the other cast members did an excellent job as well. The many hours of practice put in by the orchestra added to the overall effect. The play was directed by Larry Bargetto, with musical direction by Lois Vidt. It was dedicated to Mrs. Helene Madson for her devotion. Overall, Brigadoon was another great success.

Cast: Jeff Whitten, Lisa Winberg, Wally Ross, Pam Carlson, Daryl Williams, Julie Eccles, Derek Feigelson, Cheryl Wilson, Aaron Groszman, Alan Orcutt, Glenn Williams, Brian Kavanaugh, Tim Young, Troy Stern, Carolyn Payne, Toni Freeman, Matt Payne, Morgan Hildebrand, Ron Brugh, Dave Chalupnik, Dan Mayer, Brian Rose, Gregg Rose, Charles Schlissel, Tom Stone, Belita Anatalio, Beth Angood, Suzanne Bonneau, Jenny Borkenhagen, Peggy Casey, Eileen Daniher, Sherilyn Draper, Linda Gulrich, Liz Hehir, Barri Johnson, Liz Mann, Melissa McBurnie, Alane McQueeney, Mickie Metevia, Natalie Mietus, Janet Moo, Cathy Rambaud, Daria Smith, Theresa Stolzman, Anne Thomas, Julie Wallace, Michele Warren, Cathy Whitten, Gayleen Williams, and all the people who worked so hard on the fantastic crew.

Christmas,

Another Christmas past, and another year of Christmas traditions completed. The faculty children's Christmas party (with a visit from a "principal" Santa Claus) was a big success. The peanut brittle in chemistry, the East Side trip, the decorations and above all, the glorious two week vacation added to the holiday spirit of all.

Christmas Concert

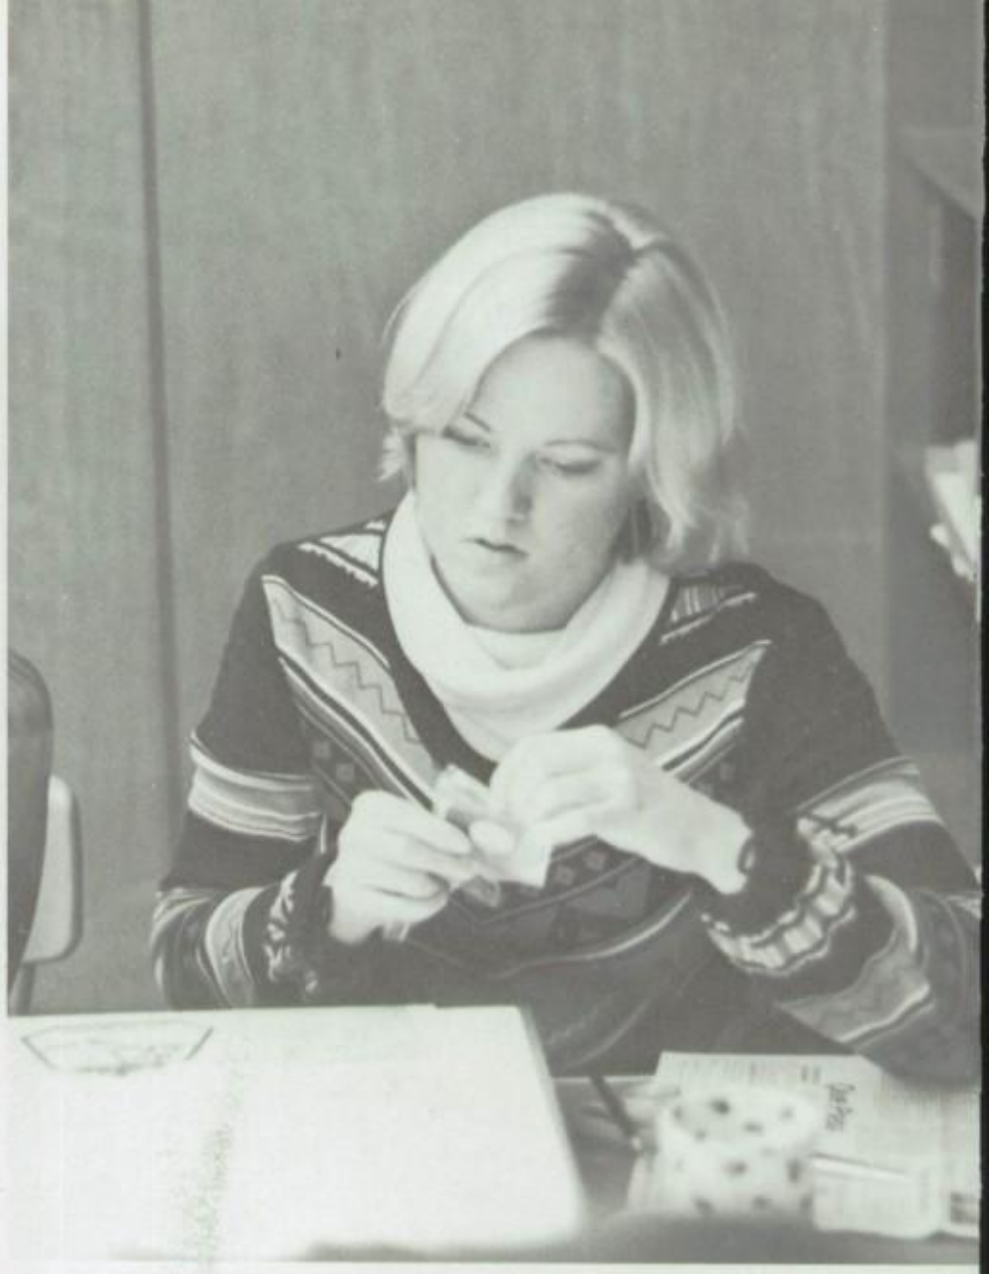
All the choirs, bands and other musical combinations get together each year at Christmas to make beautiful sounds. A traditional feature of the concert is the candlelight procession which gives a quadraphonic feeling to the audience. One unique occurrence of this year's concert was the kazoo performance by the concert choir.

East-Side Christmas

Spanish Club's biggest annual project is the East-Side Christmas trip, and along with it comes the problem of collecting enough toys to take over. This year, though, there was no problem. Collection started in September and continued till the trip on December 15. Club members became elves and carolers, and physiology's Mr. Linden played Santa-for-a-Day. Each year this trip brings Christmas to thousands of kids who would otherwise have none. With the traditional piñata, the songs, and all the toys, the day was a great success.

Christmas Ball

Although rain and formals don't mix, it was nice to have the Christmas Ball away from school this year. Ivory Tower, this year's band played everything from Boston to Yes. (They even knew how to slide out the door with class.) This year's Queen was Natalie Meitus, and the princesses were Vicky Stafford, Lonna Larsh, Debbie Bloem, and Kelly Caward. Better luck next time, Donna and Alicia.



The Lynbrook newspaper, which is always (well, almost) published biweekly, includes Lynbrook sports news, editorials, amusing art work, candid interviews, and Taco La Paz ads (which makes the paper even more popular). Remember sneaking out to the snack bar under the guise of "checking out a story"? Or the controversies over B. K. 's cartoons and letters? Sitting at the top of the rally court handing out the "Epics" was fun. (Or at least selling them to Freshmen was!)

Valhalla

We first met at the end of last year, but things didn't come together till we spent a weekend at Pajaro. Thanks to J. R., Uncle Bill, and a couple of silly games, this weekend was the beginning of many strong bonds among us. Quad-Pak nights were long and hectic. Especially the fighting over what music to play. These nights often started at six and ended three days later. During this time our support of the Golden Mushroom put them into a higher tax bracket. Although the book was finished in March, the things we learned and the relationships we experienced were not.

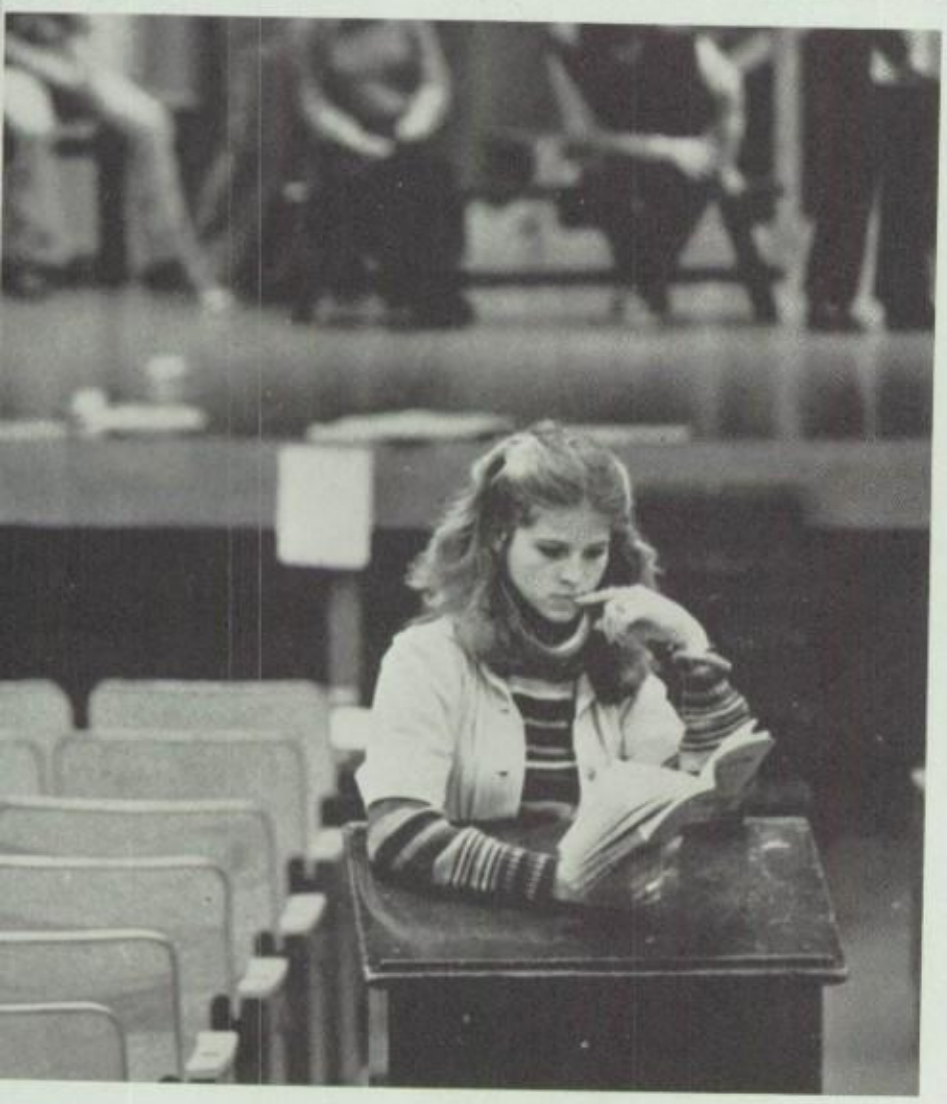
Spring ASB

The Spring election proved to have the largest voter turnout in Lynbrook history. This was partly due to the fact that it was widely publicized with buttons, posters, and banners. The chosen officials and commissioners attended a leadership conference, led by Joel Rosenberg and Bill Ames. Unity and school participation in ASB were the major goals of this group.

Spring Play



The spring play this year was "Auntie Mame" with Cheryl Wilson playing the lead. The play had many interesting scenes. One was the party, in which Mame had some very interesting guests. (Were the actors as strange as the characters?) Another was the discussion of Patrick's school. (By the way, what do boy fish do?)

Choir

All right people start off with the "head, shoulders, knees, toes." Then the Glisando slides followed by the Bumble Bee. Don't feel silly just look for Glenn's ding. No Daryl, there's not an operation for that! The Choir was very dedicated this year, some students took up to three class periods a day of choir. Congratulations on your invitation to the San Jose Tournament.

Band

Being one of the most active organizations at Lynbrook, band members are involved in numerous school functions. The Concert Band played at Brigadoon and at the Christmas Concert. The Pep Band played at rallies and sports events, plus assemblies and clubs day. When the band wasn't playing, they were busy making money for new uniforms. Selling things at the De Anza flea market, and making and selling pizzas were among the activities. This year's band was not only busy, but talented. Sixteen members made County Honor Band, three made State Honor Band, and three made State Honor Orchestra.

I'd Walk a Mile for a Schedule

What nasty things can be said about computer registration that haven't already been said a thousand times? This wonderful new system managed to screw-up half of the students' schedules in one way or another. Being able to choose teachers and periods is worth a few hours of confusion. Computer registration is hopeless. It must be terminated . . . terminated . . . terminated . . .

this year because you're such a neat person. a lot people will write this and not mean it but I do. I hope that I will see you next year. I hope that you do not take this schedule because you're much too talented. You'll become a very good fashion designer or interior decorater. Good Luck, Joe Leigh Ar

CENTRAL CALIFORNIA
RED CROSS
REGIONAL BLOOD PROGRAM

EVERY 17 SECONDS SOMEONE NEEDS BLOOD!

GIVE SOMEONE
A CHANCE
TO LIVE

Blood Drive

Each year Lynbrook students seventeen years and one hundred pounds pride themselves in being more generous with their blood than students from any other school in the district. Well, we'd do anything for a free glass of vitamin-enriched orange juice and time off from classes. Of course these advantages fall secondary to the good feeling we get when we are able to give something of ourselves to others who are not so fortunate.

Sweetheart Ball

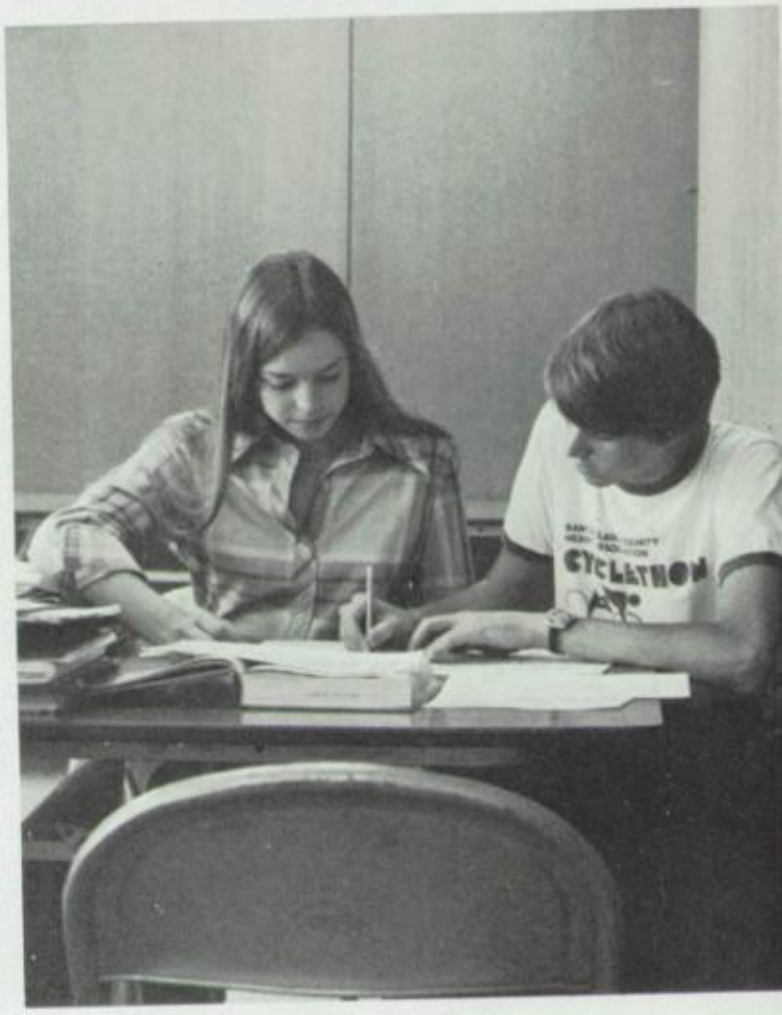
The huge mirrored ball added to the atmosphere of the first-ever Sweetheart Ball at Lynbrook. Like the Sadie, the girls ask the guys to this one. Although the dance had been announced as semiformal, there were quite a few classy outfits seen that night. The band, Stardust, did a good job, and maybe we'll see them next year at the second Sweetheart Ball.

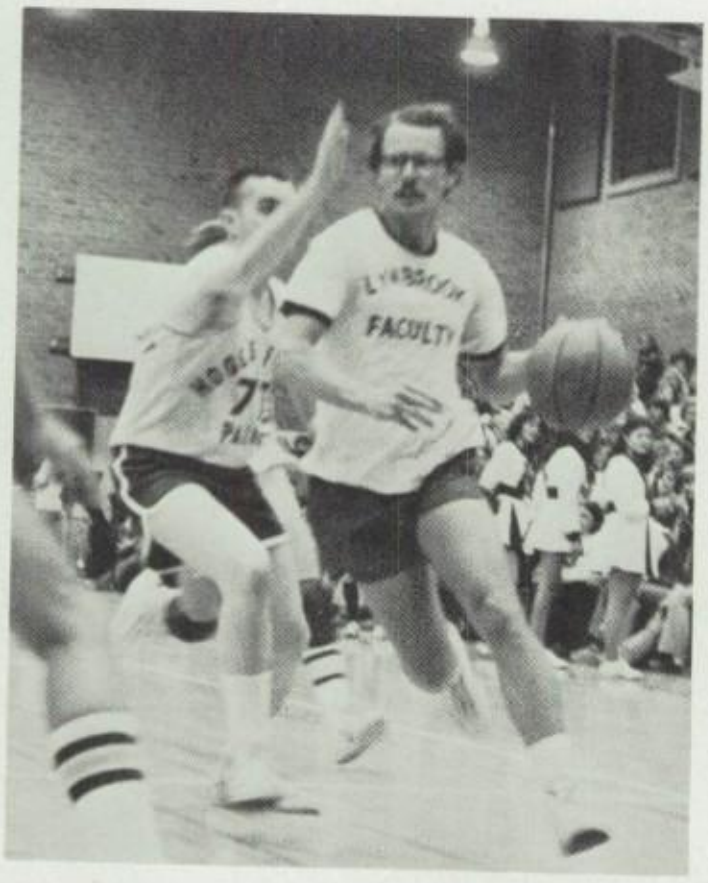
Club Day

The first successful club day at Lynbrook was really fu At one end was the pep band playing away, and on the other was A. V. interviewing unsuspecting students with provocative questions. In between were many booths offering tasty morsels (To tantalize the taste buds!) to entice us into joining their respective clubs. It was an extended brunch that later became extended into lunch. Everyone who went enjoyed it.

Tutorial Center

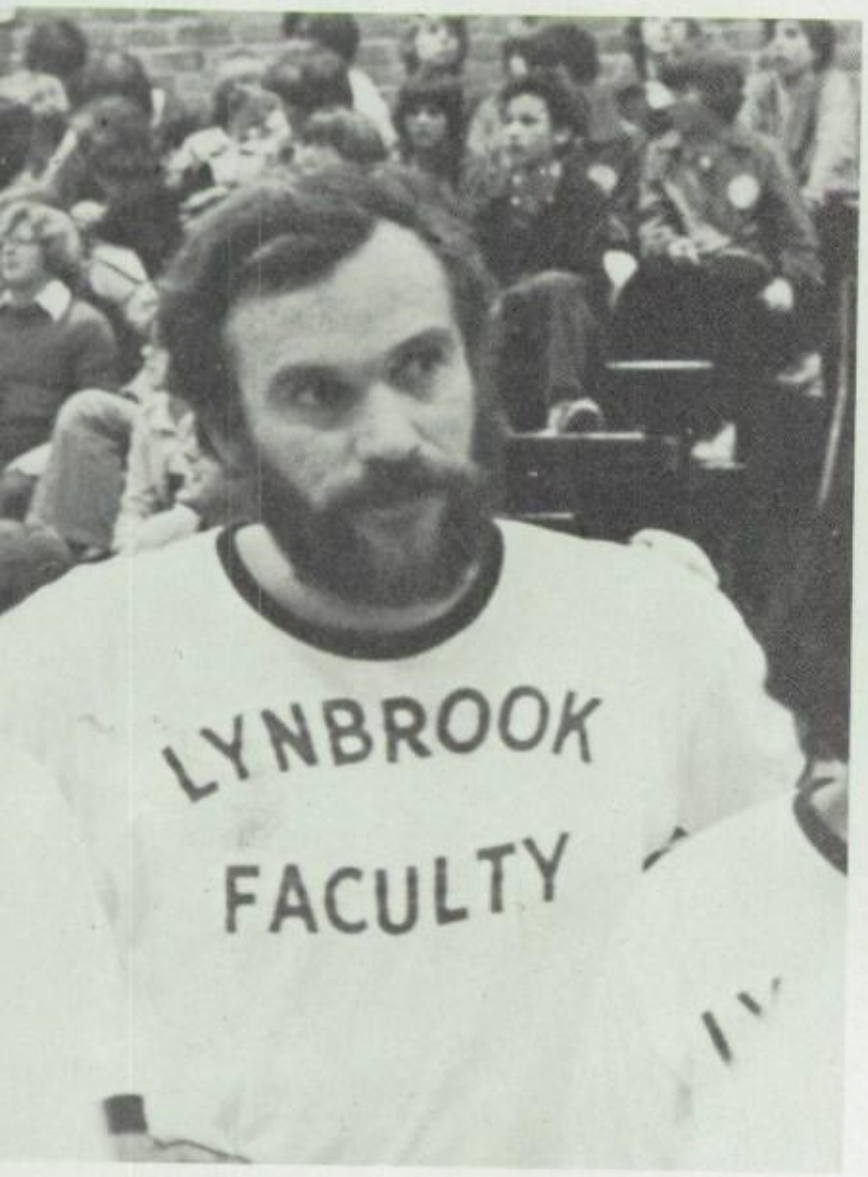
7:30 in the morning — can we possibly make it? (Bernard?) If Doug would beat up those messy Freshmen we could have a clean center to work in. Sadly, our Mary left us in December, but Peg quickly found her niche in the center and our hearts. Tutoring till 5 p.m. isn't a blast, but the company and compensation make it worthwile.





Faculty Basketball

Despite Mr. Neilsen's refusal to be the ball, the Faculty basketball game vs. Miller still proved to be a sports spectacular. The squad was led by the old men, Dossa and Holtorf, who came out of retirement with an exclusive one-game contract due to Lynbrook's losing season last year. Mr. Talbot tried to add color to the game by suggesting that the team wear sky blue and pink bottoms and purple tops. Jim Nelson, who claims that his ancestors invented the game, wanted to wear his chartreuse shorts. Between Randy Aguilar's green fingers and Stan Perry's extra-hard work, the team, made up of Dick Blick, Randy Bliss, Bruce Meisenbach, Don "Dissection" Linden, Rick Gebers, and Dick Powell (who still wants to know who he is playing against), had another losing season. Oh well, guys. (Sorry, Chuck, but we couldn't seem to fill 80 pages).



What is that surreptitious scraping that careful listening can detect coming from the corner of a classroom? (Clue: Not termites.) It's a jewelry student meticulously filing down his/her work. Crafts people while away their hours scraping clay from their hands, and art aspirants worry about getting the paint off their (gulp) new pants. Textile workers simply pray that their wax doesn't crack too much. Ah, to have such problems . . .

Varsity

The best way to turn a relaxed summer into a constant physical torture is to go out for football. The team starts practicing in August and goes all the way to mid-November. This year's team was led for the third year straight by Coach Burke. This season's record was disappointing, but injuries to two starting quarterbacks never helps much. The team's dinners before each game went well, as did the scouting of other teams. We're looking forward to a winning season next year.

Top Row: Bill Nicholas, Craig Hunter, Mark Miller, Greg Kasner, Brian Lewis, Ken Cesena, Chris Oberle, Ken Feree. Second Row: John McKeon, Dave Dumas, Kevin Weiby, Jack Godwin, Bob Freedman, Steve Conner, Joe Pele, Randy Jones, Dan Ebbesen, Ross Miller. Missing: Jack Catanese, Glen Corbella, Karl Chain, John Walters, Mgr. Tom Walters.

Junior Varsity

Not as many fans showed up for the J.V.s' game (so what else is new?), but they often did better than the Varsity, showing promise for next year. Many scrimmages with the Varsity were helpful, although sometimes quite painful. The J.V.'s had some bad breaks but I guess that's the way the ball bounces.

Frosh

One step below the J.V.'s is the Frosh. This year's Frosh team will make excellent additions to next year's J.V. (and Varsity?) team. Although Coach Perry got good at throwing his clipboard and yelling things about white socks, the team ended up with a 2-4 record. But maybe with a year's growth, next season might be better.

Varsity, Back Row: Linda Lambert, Lisa Hilquist, Heidi Bohlke, Jeri Francis, Elaine Winslow, Marianne Watson, Vi San Juan. Front: Debbie MacDonald, Kathy Briggs, Alicia Luck, Kathy Kieler, Ellen Shikashio.

Chico trip was great, (Debbie and Jocko are going steady) so was beating undefeated Monta Vista 1-0. "I'm sorry Ms. Stober, I can't come to practice today; I'm having my senior picture taken this afternoon." Who got small at the Varsity hockey party: We'll never tell! (For a translation and incriminating evidence, see your local Varsity hockey player.) Too many wind sprints? It's too hot? (Don't complain girls — we know you cheated on the relays. Itchy legs from stretching in the grass is even more fun. Stop laughing Nichols. (Conehead?) Although the same people took in the cage every day, it was a marvelous team effort. The cheers before scrimaging helped the J.V.'s put together a fine season. The Cee team did excellent this year, pulling off an undefeated season. They only played two games, But it's the percentage that counts!

Water Polo

One can always tell a varsity poloist (or is that polo-er?) by his short, wet, and slightly greenish hair. Treading water endlessly, inhaling lungfuls of water, and getting scratched by an unclipped fingernail are a few of the casualties they suffer continuously. But they enjoy it, since they practice every day. But the practice shows when the game begins . . .

The only way to tell the difference between Varsity players and JV players is to count the number of scars on their faces. But seriously, the JV's compose a major portion of next year's Varsity, so it would be clever to keep them healthy.

Our poor, innocent Freshmen soon learned that Polo isn't a summer swim party. Coach, how much longer do we have to tread water? How many more laps do we have to swim? Where did I leave my goggles? (But we love our Freshmen, right?)

Getting into a wet bathing suit at 6:30 a.m. and then jumping into an unheated pool is an experience that no one should go through life without. But the girls had some incentive to work hard, such as a cute coach and lots of polo players watching. Plus the excitement of the meets, with everyone in their team sweatshirts, makes the work-outs pay off.

X-Country

Ever see hot, sweaty, exhausted bodies (with very little clothing on) walking toward the showers? Well, those are our cross country teams. Running mile after mile after mile makes every race seem like the most important. Remember — keep up your pace! What? You hurt? Shouldn't have missed practice three times this week!

This year's JV team was built on lots of enthusiasm and determination, with quite a bit of humor mixed in. (There was some Tennis played, but that's unimportant.) Lots of rowdiness was a big part of the year. Of course, some credit belongs to Coach Libby!

A day on the courts . . . Chris, you came! Do you really want to work on that, Teri? Marcie, he just went by. Deanna, who is it this week? Punch, don't swing, Stacey. No, Elaine, No, Elaine! Tracey, tell Donna to shut up, please. Mary, that's not the baseline. Donovan, hit the ball, don't kick it. "Remember, girls: Sure shots. Percentage Tennis! Practice is as practice does!" Saratoga? *@%$¢! Is it time to go yet, Mrs. Seltz? As you can see, a perfectly organized team.

Wy Wy, Duh, P.J., Queeny Carole (and/or Cheryl), Annie, and Zag combined their efforts to make an excellent Volleyball team. (Coach "Mom helped, too!) Although Coach Rowland couldn't keep Carole straight from Cheryl, she let the girls know that "Knowing isn't good enough." and taught them the difference between a "down ball" and a "spike." Led by head-cheerleader "Fung" and coach Grizzly Adams, J.V. volleyball spiked, dug, and served their way to a top second place in league. Everyone had fun as well as a hard workout, and the team would have never made it without their motto, "T.P."

Teamwork was what kept the Lynbrook Cee volleyball team in winning shape, the Vikettes came in with a big 10-2 record and second place in the league. "Hustle Buns" was the big cheer, and that's just what the Cee volleyball team did in the '77-'78 season.

Coach Jack Holtorf led the Cee's to an excellent season, finishing with a record of 12-2. The team had many excellent players this year, not just one superstar. They can attribute much of their success to this group effort.

Back Row: Coach Jack Holtorf, Clay Leong, Daryl Rheuark, Ray Sennewald, Jim Rauh, Jeff Andrieu
Joe Koller, Dan Neuman, Guy Beatty.

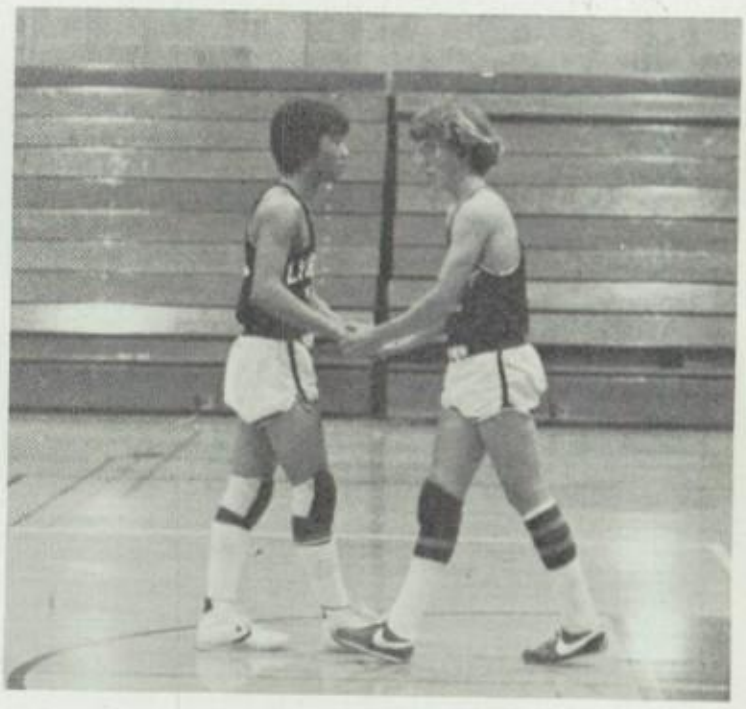
Doesn't it feel good to have an undefeated team this year? The Dee's, coached by big, bad, Ernie Dossa, compiled a 14-0 record. For the team, there is but one request, "Don't Grow!"



Powder Puff

In the beginning, there was practice. With many Juniors and only a few Seniors, Lynbrook Powder Puff Football put together a lively season. On the Juniors' side, the girls were not always present in practice. But when it came to the game, everyone played with finesse and cooperation. (The pep talks were fun even though football wasn't discussed.)

The cheerleaders were interesting to watch also (especially Julian.) The Seniors had fewer players than their younger counterparts, but put forth just as much effort. In fact, everyone had to play. (Even though Benaron thought it was boxing.) Hitting hard was fun (but getting hit hard hurt.)

Under the coaching of Big Stobe and Mare Bare, we dribbled, passed, and shot our way to a productive season. The season was highlighted by Marcie's hip action, and Vi's famous fakes, not to mention Stephanie's well-executed Russian lay ups and Karen's stupendous dribbling. Especially off of her right foot. The kinkies of the team were an asset, if and when they were present and uninjured. We couldn't have made it without Big and Little Red, and of course, Debby Z. and her knee.

Following up the Varsity team, the JV's showed their stuff. Coached by Linda Nichols, our season was unforgettable. The game with thirty turnovers was quite an experience. So was practice the next day. Alysa wasn't there; she had to babysit. Meanwhile Himes was trying to dribble through five people all at once, as Katie was traveling to who knows where. We not only taught Stryder to press and Cooke to jump, but we also succeeded in convincing Nancy that Mickey Mouse really does exist. On the shorter end of the teams (except Kari) the Cee's provided an exciting game. Practices were always eventful.

Varsity Basketball

Hustle! Mountain Man take the tip! (Isn't Timex here yet?) You should have passed it to Yugo. Hey, Froggy, we thought holding your opponent by the foot was a personal foul. Should we all go to P. H.'s house after the game again, or go pile into the bathroom at the hospital? We had a lot of practice avoiding nurses when we went to see Wakeman. Sorry, Bongo, your other name won't do. Don't worry, Yo-Yo, Plodder, Grease, Nip-Legs, Handsome, Wild-Bill, I. V., and Yaz, we wouldn't forget you!

JV Basketball

For team members, here's a quiz. Match the following descriptions with each player. 1) Attempted to become Melvin Holland. 2) Forever combing his hair for the girls. 3) Yells "Trailer" during fast breaks. 4) Extremely calm in practice. 5) Failed in attempt to ram in pregame. 6) Doesn't like to shoot in the game. 7) Known for graceful motion and exquisite language on the court. 8) Wants to know more guys from Kentucky. 9) Terrific knees and jumping ability. 10) Known for his cheers. 11) Brings Biology books to practice. 12) Hates the smoking area. 13) Hates his shooting at Cupertino. 14) Attempted to air condition the gym with opponents. (For answers, see page 296.

Frosh Basketball

High scorers Dwight Whipple and Caveman (Little Howie) Fine led the Frosh team through a hard season. The team had good potential, but a tough league made it difficult to prosper. Two losses to Saratoga (once by one point and the other in overtime) hurt. Keep practicing, and watch next year for three-legged duck on the Junior Varsity Team.

Soccer

Although both soccer teams practiced in the mud all the time, the JV's managed to work a lot harder that the Varsity. (Probably due to extreme cases of Senioritis.) The scrimmages between the team were almost a brawl, which was somewhat ironic after the "together" cheer. K. B.'s party was a lot of fun, because everyone on the teams got to know each other better. Besides all of the mud and hard played games, our experiences would not have been complete without Jim and Bruce.

Top Row: Coach Bill Gantley, John Hubbard, John Larson, Jeff Applegate, Doug LaPorte
Scott McGlothlin, Marc Vandenberg, Alan Bayley, Dan Brown. Middle: Clay Nesbitt, Kris Dior

Manager Val Hopkins. Missing: Rick Ferriera, Mike Reickerd, Axel Wagnet.

JV and Frosh Soccer

Coach Pugh wore out a lot of grass this year with his pacing, but the field held up anyway. There were some hot moments, including the yellow carding of Steve Zan. The team did well despite the ever-popular referees (C'mon Ref, one more eye and you'd be a cyclops!). The Frosh soccer team was a strong one this year. Coached by Ron Shikashio, the team was very impressive in their wins, which were almost all the time. Fine team playing enabled the Freshman to outrun and outplay the oppostion. Congratulations and good luck next year as JV and Varsity players.

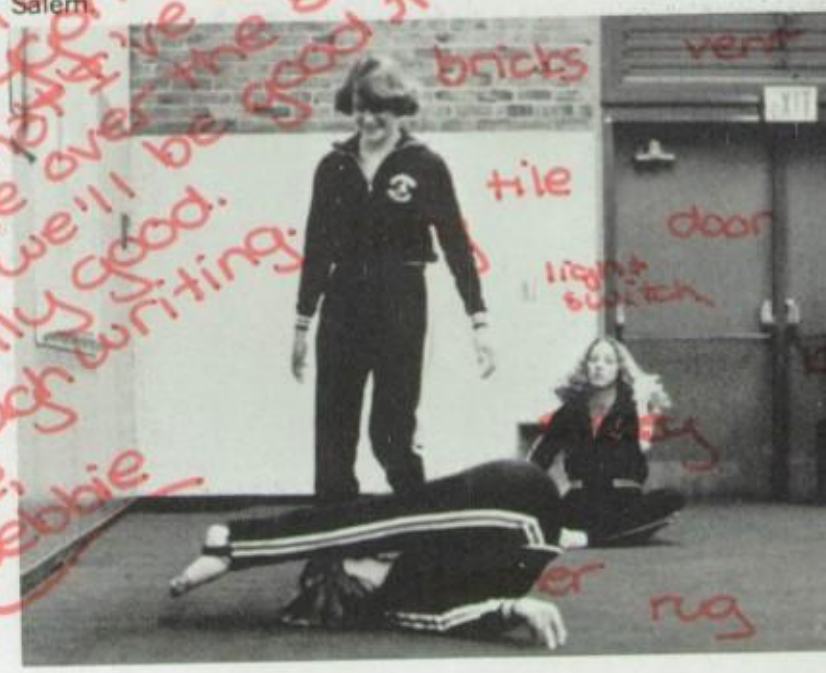
Third Row: Lisa Territo, Amy Celentano, Debbie Petersen, Allison Guinn. Fourth Row: Heather Lashbrook, Coach John Estrada, Jerrie Moo, Ciema Salem.



The Gymnastics team had new coaches this year. For the first time, there was a Varsity and JV team. Often a major decision during practices was "your crash pad or mine?" The team had a cartwheel-a-thon to raise money for new uniforms. Angered by last year's defeat by Saratoga, the girls are out to get back their undefeated reputation.

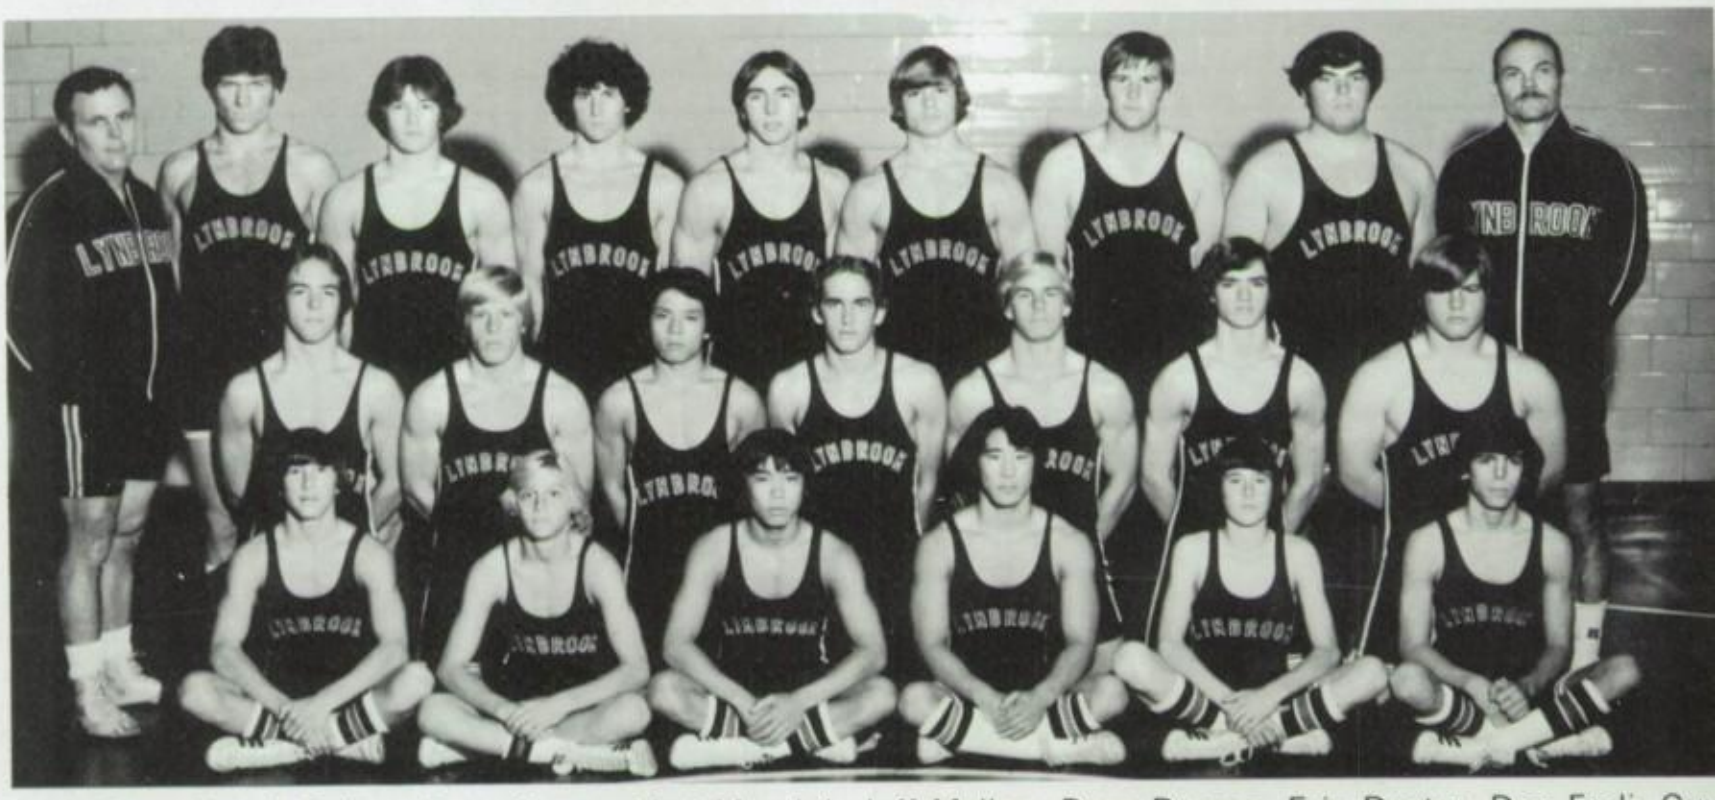
Wrestling

The big unanswered question this year is: "Does Rod Koda (superman) sweat?!!" Maybe Whale Meat would know. Or maybe Dumas would know, as soon as he gets his uniform on right. The team not only wrestles, but impersonates rock groups with themes like "We Are the Champions" and "We Will Rock You." But wrestling isn't all fun — there's always the starving, the dehydrating rubber suits, the par course, and of course the weight room circuits. Only Peterson H.S. could enjoy spare time.



Back Row: Coach Talbot, Pete Moyer, Matt Montini, Jeff Mellon, Dave Dumas, Eric Doster, Dan Froli, Guy Gummow, Coach Halliday. Middle Row: Dave Petersen, Steve Perricone, Dave Yamashiro, Chris Harvey, Chris Swanson, Daryl Rheuark, Dan Ebbesen. Front Row: Alan Linney, Mike Pope, Phil Sakoi, Rod Koda, Bill Beck, Doug Talbot.

Varsity Baseball

With the help of a new infield and new dugouts, the varsity baseball team began another season with a storm (rain-storm, that is). The brand new uniforms made the guys look sharp, and they reflected this attitude in their playing.

The JV team, with ace pitcher Clay Leong made a fine showing although they had to practice on the basketball courts when it rained. The frosh had a bit of an easier time since they practiced over at Miller. They should make a good addition to next year's JV team.

ond Row: Ted Rodich, Bryan Calder, Bill Bloyd, Craig Sealey, Eric Sandstrom, Brent Jones.
on.

Rain, snow, sleet, lightening, flash flood, tidal waves, or whatever, swimmers kept swimming through practices. 6:45-9 A.M. and 3-5 P.M. isn't much fun. The strength of the team is in the top talent. Todd Trowbridge, Chris Cavanaugh, Clif Coran, and Dan Coran (it runs in the family) are all expected to make nationals. Rany Armstrong with his bionic body proved good for another year. The Frosh-Soph had a bit of trouble this year, with barely enough swimmers to cover all the events. Thursday was always a good day, since it meant no practice. Finally, a chance to sleep.

Softball

It's a bit easier to go to practice with a male coach, huh? Most teams practice hard or not all; we managed to go half and half, half work and half fun. Our first game was quite a victory, since we didn't have a full team and only had a few days of practice. The JV's didn't even know each other's names. After that game, it was time for all to go bed, even Glowing Brows and Happy Feet. (Of course we can't forget Dinah Shore; I mean down to shore.)

Front: Lisa Sgambaty, Tanya Heinrichs, Julie Rodich, My Ha.

With a strong hope of new uniforms next year, the badminton team rambled on. This year the team was young, with only one senior. Outstanding individuals were Cara Patten, Tanya Heinrichs, Julie Rodich, and Cherie Borgert, their efforts indicate a strong team for next year. Even though they don't have much experience, they really had a good time.

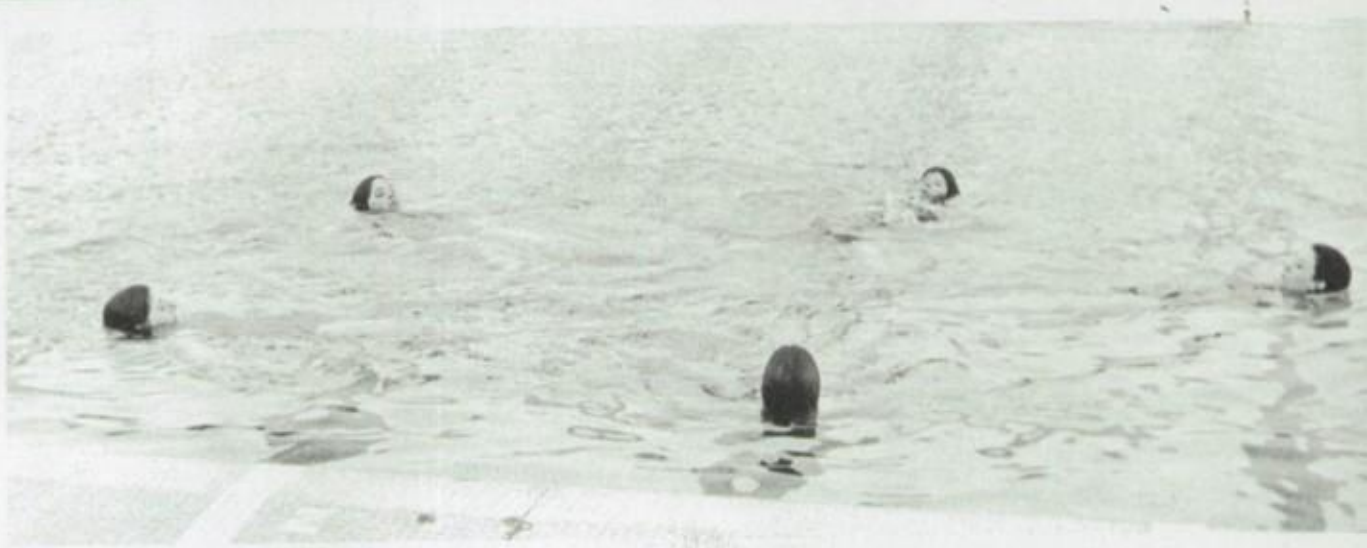
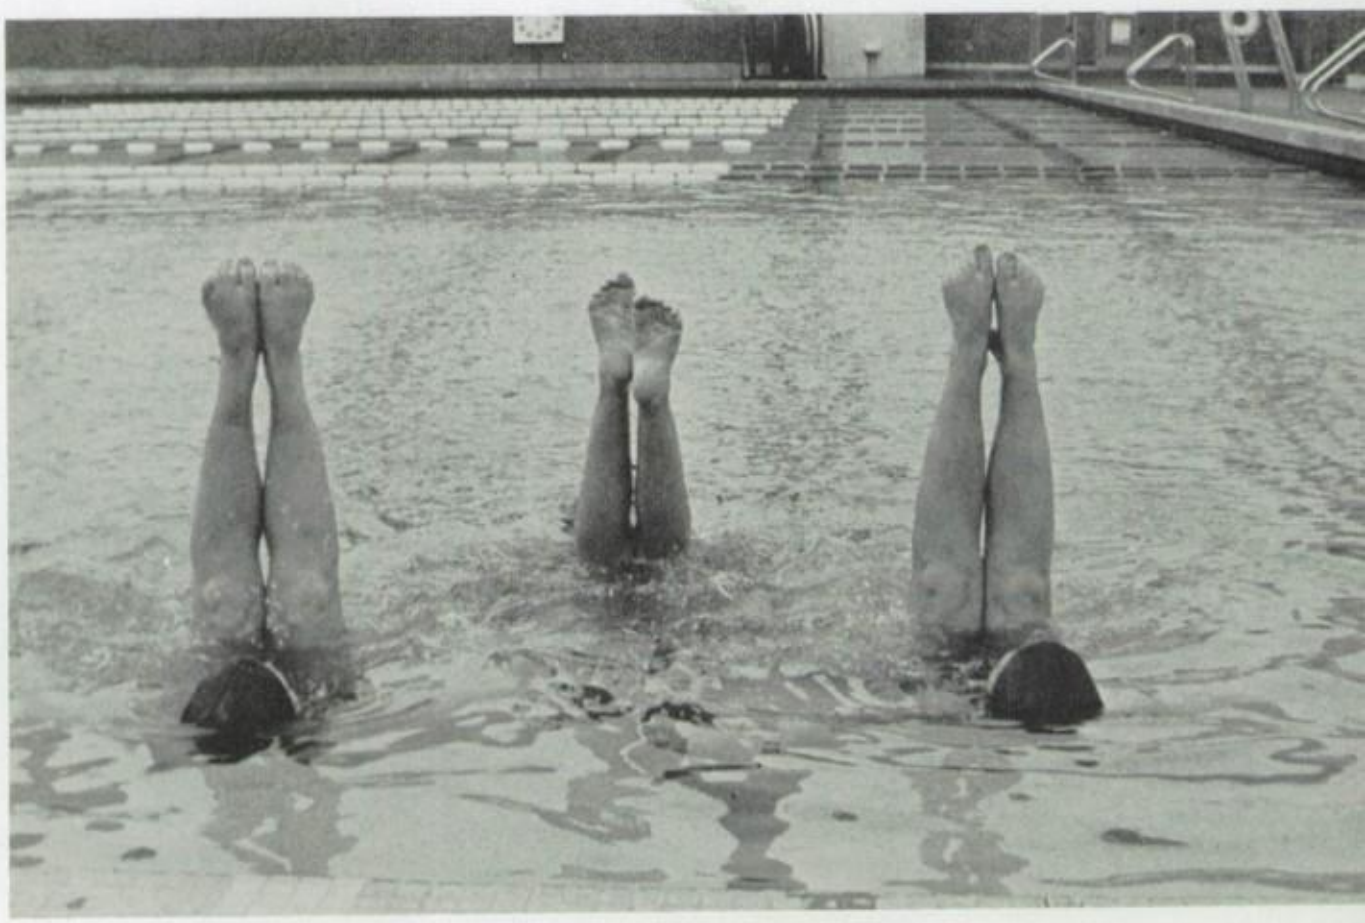
Aquacade

To the theme of "It's So Easy to Fall in Love," the aquacade team put together a fine show this year. Despite the fact that everyone took ten minutes to get in the water, the girls worked hard once they were in. The Dolphin wasn't practiced very often due to an extreme lack of nose plugs. (That's you, Arden!) With the help of Coach Seltz and Aquamaid Sarah White, the Lynbrook Mermaids finally learned to do the Ballet Crawl without splashing. If nothing else, everyone learned to swim across the pool in one breath.





Track

When they weren't flirting with the girls' track team, the guys actually practiced some. With a smaller team this year, the guys really had to work hard. (But not too hard, since the first four meets were rained out.) One interesting occurrence was when Chris Oberle hit John McKeon in the backside with a discus. Ken Feree was another deadly discus man, almost pinning two runners in one practice. The team wasn't very tightly-knit, since I had to talk to seven people to get this much copy.

I will see you this summer. If not what the heck (I didn't mean that) Maybe I will write somewhere in your time. Dave (again)

Beginning the season with a wet and muddy track, it was hard to resist the home base slides after running 220's. We were strong in all areas, especially sprints and high jumps. (The distance runners got caught up in the rain, so they swam.) Much practice was missed due to the flirtatious female tracksters (the guys' team wasn't much help, either.) Also, we musn't forget that Ibida is the key to high jump, and Lisa would be a good discus thrower if she could gain 20 pounds (so say the experts!)

Tennis

Let us take a look at those commanding individuals who led the Lynbrook Tennis Machine. Mike Cruz after being in seclusion (rumor said he wouldn't practice until he had 27 tennis outfits — 1 for each game) climbed to the top. Close behind him was Paul Rhodes, who hasn't put down a racquest since last year. Jeff Applegate, once pried away from his sweetie, was a threat on the court. The team, in its usual manner of dead seriousness, planned to give the Coach a pocket dishwasher, seven thick socks, and a cheese straightener.

Golf

Two years ago, our golf team had a seam-splitting roster of two people. But last year's team had six members, and this year's team had a record-breaking eight people! (For those interested in stock, buy Lynbrook golf now!) For those who prefer subsidiaries of this corporation, invest in The Man, The Kid, Baby Huey, Crazy George, T.J., Little Nipper, Diaper Boy, or Dave.

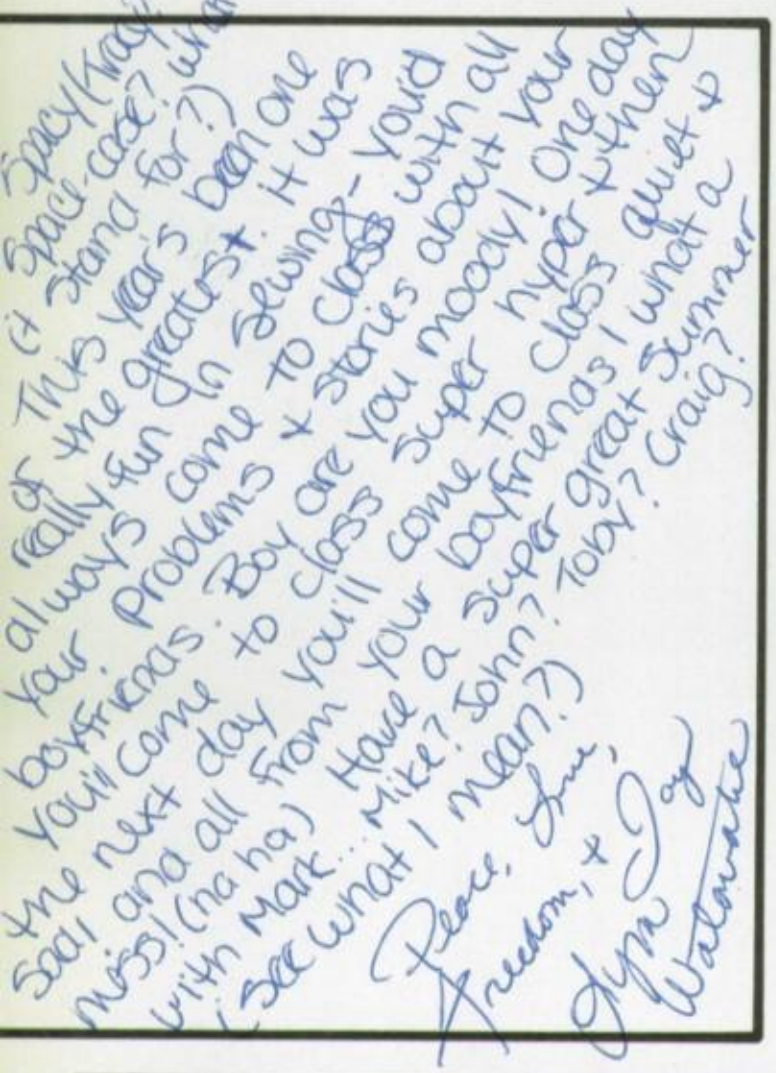
This, a page of our finest photographs of the year. They don't represent anything important, but the absolute brilliance of each effort could not be ingnored. Included are "The Fine Details of a Hand," by Jenny Overstreet, "A Polar Bear in a Snow Storm," by Brian Abbott, "An Elf Moving with Lightening Speed," Mike Wiest's "Study of Chairs," and "A Black Cat in a Coal Mine," by Maura Marangoni. All of the aforementioned works have been entered in contests across the US and in Europe.



Spacy (Kraig? Space case? Stand for?) what's it
This year's been one of the greatest. It was really fun in Sewing - You'd always come to class with all your problems + stories about your boyfriends. Boy are you moody! One day You'll come to class super hyper + then the next day you'll come to class quiet + sad and all from a super great summer miss! (ha ha) today? Craig?
with Mark... Mike? Sorry
I see what I mean?)

7 years! WOW! There are too many people to thank to try to name them all. I wouldn't trade these years for anything. I gave willingly and I look back thinking only that there were so many I didn't get to know. The words that stand out are responsibility, kids, love, closeness, Jonathan, you're great, John Wayne, laughing, crying, agreements, stuttering, excited, worried, Stull, THE DISTRICT, Pajaro, yearbook, parents, closed, bewildered, Bike Club, open, philosophy, Jessica, Jacob, Chemistry, moles, O.K.?

Fun . . . Joy . . . Alive
Wonderful People

I leave you with this thought. He said it better than I ever could . . .

Each second we live is a new and unique moment of the universe, a moment that never was before and never will be again. And what do we teach our children? We teach them that 2 + 2 make 4 and that Paris is the capital of France. When will we also teach them what they are?

We should say to them: Do you know what you are? You are a marvel. You are unique. In all of the world there is no other child exactly like you. In the millions of years that have passed there has never been a child like you. And look at your body — what a wonder it is! Your legs and your arms, your cunning fingers, the way you move! You may become a Shakespeare, a Michelangelo, a Beethoven. You have the capacity for anything. Yes, you are a marvel. And when you grow up, can you then harm another who is, like you, a marvel? You must cherish one another. You must work — we must all work — to make this world worthy of its children.

Tracy,
This year has been really fun. I'm glad I got to know you through swing and BOC. Our english class was one of the best. I hope we get in a lot of classes next year. Maybe we'll plan another picnic to Linda Vista or Vasona. That picnic was great, with the water fights, all that food, and keep away games. Hope you have a lot of fun this summer and hope to see you sometime. Give me a call sometime 252-0900

You really seem like a nice person although I didn't get to know you to well I hope your in some of my classes
next year

Tracy,
It was great knowing you this year. If we couldn't have known Jeff & wouldn't have known you. Well, have a great summer and I'll see you next year.
Bob LaBellare

To Tracy,
To a friend.
It was really fun having
you in Pugh's class.
Hope to see you this summer The Brain (Chris Quentin)

Tracy,
It was really nice
having you in my Food
Class. Have a really good
Summer. Bob Latimer

To Spacy
I hope you had a great year at school and hope your summer is the same. I hope to see you this summer, but if not I'll see you next year.

Tracy (oops!) Tracy: I just cut my finger, that's why the ink is red. Oral Communications was fun, only I didn't know you until the end of the semester. Dwight Whipple just told me to write my name, so I will.

Later,

Eric Santoro

Tracy
Its been nice knowing you. I think! I should get to know you better. I didn't mean it that way
(Johnhas got to you) Any way
I liked the pancakes in your cooking class, except that they could have been a little better cooked. I hope that ya have a great summer and maybe I'll see you around

Luv
